TO APPLY:

1. Georgetown University students should register for Summer School courses on the Web. For more information, please see How To Apply http://summerschool.georgetown.edu/how\_to\_apply.html.
2. Non-Georgetown University students must register for Summer School courses by completing the Summer School Application Form. Each section of the application must be completed. For more information, please see How To Apply http://summerschool.georgetown.edu/how\_to\_apply.html.

TO REGISTER:

Mail-In Registration:

1. Upon receipt of your completed application form by the Summer School Office, you will be registered in the courses for which you have applied. You will also be mailed a Summer School Bill. This bill will list the courses for which you have registered, the amount due (per session) including fees, and payment instructions.
2. To complete payment, review the information on your bill for errors. Georgetown students, please note that if you change courses, it is your responsibility to obtain proper written approval for the change from your Dean's office on an Add/Drop Form. Non-Georgetown students should confirm such changes with appropriate officials at their home institutions and complete an Add/Drop Form available at the Summer School office. The completed bill and payment should be mailed or brought to the Student Accounts Office by the appropriate deadline. (See Payment Deadlines).
3. If you have not received a Summer School Bill by two weeks prior to the payment deadline (and you applied well in advance of that deadline), contact the Summer School Office.
4. Please note: If your payment has not been received in the Student Accounts Office by the Payment Deadlines, and you have not made arrangements to defer payment, please be aware that you will be dropped from the courses for which you were registered. If you wish to re-enroll for these courses you must attend Late Registration and you will be charged the late registration fee ($80.00) as well as any other applicable fees assigned by Student Accounts. Students who have enrolled for courses and later wish to drop them, must fill out a Drop Form in the Summer School Office. Students who fail to do so will be held responsible for tuition charges and the late fee and they will receive an F for those courses.

NON-GEORGETOWN NON-U.S. CITIZENS AND PERMANENT RESIDENTS APPLICATION CHECKLIST:

- 1. Complete the Georgetown University 2006 Summer School Application Form, including Part V.
- 2. Submit a copy of your TOEFL scores of 550 or above (600 for Linguistics courses) for the written exam or 213 or above (263 for Linguistics courses) for the computer-based exam.
- 3. Submit a copy of your international passport.
- 4. Complete and submit a Summer School International Student Visa Status Questionnaire which may be requested from the Summer School Office or printed from the Summer School Website. The questionnaire must be returned to the Summer School before an I-20 can be issued to you. Accurate citizenship and visa-type information must be submitted in a timely fashion. Late applicants will be ineligible to register.
- 5. International students applying through an educational agency are responsible for following Georgetown University's admissions, registration and academic procedures. Notification of acceptance into Summer School programs in the form of a Summer School Bill will be sent via air mail to the student's mailing address. Accurate citizenship and visa-type information must be submitted in a timely fashion. Late applicants will be ineligible to register.

ALL STUDENTS:

Immunizations: If you are a new enrolling student and are under the age of 26 at the time of registration, you are required by District of Columbia law to provide documentation of vaccination or immunity from Diphtheria, Tetanus, Hepatitis B, Measles, Mumps, Rubella and Varicella. Students under age 18 must be vaccinated against polio. In addition, all students, regardless of age, are screened for Tuberculosis by a risk assessment questionnaire. Some students will also need a tuberculosis skin test. The University is required to cancel the registration of students who do not demonstrate compliance with the law. If you have not already submitted this information to Georgetown University, please access <http://shc.georgetown.edu> to download the 2006 Academic Year Immunization and Tuberculosis Screening Certificate and, after completion, send it to the Student Health Center, 3700 Reservoir Road, NW, Ground Floor, Darnall Hall, Washington, D.C. 20007. If you are unable to download the immunization form, do not have internet access, or have any questions regarding immunizations, please call the immunization line at (202) 687-3100 or the Student Health Center at (202) 687-4500. The forms are due by the first day of class of the session in which the student is enrolled. The Student Health Center can provide all required vaccinations at cost.
